The average daily circulation of the Barre Daily Times for the week ending Saturday was copies, the largest paid circulation of any daily paper in this section.

4,535

The telegraphers' strike is easily heard around the world.

If all the Martins alone return to Williamstown for the "old home week" there will be sure to be a crowd.

Think of it. Standard Oil quoted at 49¢ on the market. John D. Rockefeller must feel quite out at the pocket.

Maine, like Vermont, is not particularly in need of mechanics, but would like an importation of farm laborers.

Well, the profits are not all on the side of the liquor dealer, if we may judge by the forced closing of a second class saloon in Rutland last week.

The Boston Vermonters arrive just a little too late for hay and a bit too early for fall work on the farm. They ought to have chosen a more opportune time.

The Granite City trotting park, under the management of the Gentlemen's Driving Club, has set a fast pace for the other race meets in Vermont and northern New England.

A suit against the Central Vermont railroad for delay in freight transportation? Our courts would be flooded if all patrons of the road who thought themselves aggrieved chose to use that weapon.

With its principal industry burned out, Richmond needs the sympathy of other Vermont towns. Such a well-established business as that of the Sweet-Cummings company surely will start over again and recoup its losses.

The Keene, N. H., woman who is the agent for the Humane society at that place and surrounding territory, is doing a good work fearlessly and well. Mrs. Jennie B. Powers is her name. It is hardly a woman's work to go around in the various disagreeable places an officer of this society has necessarily to go and dispatch animals which are in misery and an incurable state. But she apparently does not flinch from the work. The cause of humanity would be greatly enhanced if there were other agents like Mrs. Powers.

RULES OF HEALTH.

There are so many words of caution thrown out nowadays to keep people from catching disease and for treating it when once contracted that it is bewildering to determine just what method to follow. Here is one treatment, however, from the "Open Air Quarterly," published at the Pembroke sanatorium, Concord, N. H., that is concise. This lays down the following recommendations:

"Be out in the fresh air as much as possible."

"If you cannot have work out of doors,

If it's the "call of the wild" or any other call, call on us for the right outfit—for 'nature students' and students of human nature here's the correct dress for all. We have a complete line of Outing Suits, Extra Trousers, special Negligee Shirts and all extras for Summer dress and hot weather comfort.

WE CLEAN, PRESS AND REPAIR CLOTHING.

go to the house door or to an open window and take twelve full breaths. Do this six times each day."

"Do not work in a dusty place."

"Get in the sunshine as often as you can."

"Sleep in a clean, well-aired room with windows open, and go to bed early."

"Avoid crowded rooms where the air is close and where there is much smoking."

"Eat plain, simple food (eggs, meat, bread, oatmeal, macaroni, rice, vegetables, milk, cream and butter)."

"If possible have some hot liquid food before you get up in the morning and at bedtime."

"Spend your money for good food rather than medicines."

"Do not drink whiskey, rum, gin, brandy or beer."

"Keep clean."

"Do not swallow what you cough up."

"Protect your friends and neighbors from taking this disease from you by burning what you cough up or by throwing it down the water-closet. What you cough up contains the germs of the disease, and, if it dies, it soon becomes dust and flies about in the air, and your friends, breathing this dust, are liable to catch your disease."

"Never spit upon the floor or in the street."

Then follows a series of bits of advice of minor importance. All of this is common place enough remedy both for killing the disease on oneself and preventing it from spreading to others. In most cases it can be followed.

JINGLES AND JESTS

Not Extravagant.

Anxious Mother—I hope you are not thinking of marrying young Clarkson. He spends every cent he earns.

Pretty Daughter—Oh, well, he doesn't earn very much.—Chicago Daily News.

True.

Base Ball pitching is another thing that cannot be taught successfully by correspondence schools.—Somerville Journal.

Uncle Eph's Wisdom.

De loafah nevah should weah black clothes. De seat ob his pants all show his occupation too plain.—Denver Post.

AN ADMISSION.

I'm envious of my neighbors some. Of course I doesn't mean

Dem rich folks dat goes boucin' past, a-burnin' gasoline;

But when I sees de hawk a-sailin' in de sky so blue

I says, "Y' sholly wishes I could travel dat way, too!"

I'd rather be a honey bee a hummin' of a song

Dan tollin' in a workshop on an office all day long;

An' when it comes to fancy clothes to catch somebody's eye,

Dar ain' nuffin' in creation dat kin beat de butterfly!

When I sees dem neighbors livin' 'mongst de flowers all day long,

Each a-tendin' to his business or a singin' of a song,

Dey is strong in my affections, like a neighbor ought to be,

But I can't help bein' jealous of 'em some, 'twixt you an' me.

—Washington Star.

When It's Remarkable.

"I don't see why you call him a remarkable young man. He has been only moderately successful."

"Well, that's remarkable in a rich man's son, isn't it?"—Chicago Post.

Anxious to Recover.

"So Galley really had to pay Miss Yerner $10,000 for breach of promise, eh?"

"Yes, and now he wants to marry her for her money."—Detroit Tribune.

Her Fault.

O woman, in your hours of ease

Uncertain, coy and hard to please,

Few men would steal and few would cheat

But for the things you wear and eat.

—Chicago Record-Herald.

Too Slow.

"Has your son decided what profession he will pursue?"

"No, but it doesn't make any difference. He wouldn't catch up with any."—Baltimore American.

Final.

A super who spoke but one line

Made a mess of it time after time.

So just to remind him

The manager fined him.

Now that super speaks that line super-fine.

—Bohemian Magazine.

A Sure Sign.

"Are the young Neweds as happy as ever?"

"I guess so. They're just as foolish about each other."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Wees.

A silly young miss in Cohoes

Had freckles all over her nose,

And she cried till she tried

But whether that helped no one knows.

—Puck.

Soured on Him.

Freshley—I attempted to squeeze

Miss Gay's hand last night.

Dobson—What did she do?

Freshley—Handed me a lemon.—Judge.

Johnny's Discovery.

When little Johnny goes to bed,

It's much to his surprise

To find he never goes to sleep

Until he shuts his eyes.

—Lippincott's.

Unkind.

Gerald—You didn't recognize me

when we met today.

Geraldine—Well, it isn't a difficult thing to cut a lemon.—Houston Post.

TWO MORE RAIDS.

State's Attorney Lawrence After Alleged Violators of the Law.

Rutland, Aug. 12.—The Wayside Inn at Castleton Corners was raided yesterday by several local officers under the direction of Chief of Police W. S. Whitaker and several bottles of "Uno" beer were found. The beer was seized by the officers and will be sent to the state laboratory for analysis.

Sheriff E. C. Fish of West Rutland with several other deputies went four miles farther and raided a hotel at Lake Bomoseen conducted by Michael Coffey. The officers failed to find any intoxicants at this place.

This is the fourth raid made in this county within the three days past and State's Attorney R. A. Lawrence has issued search warrants for all raids.

The proprietor of the Wayside Inn is Edward Rumery, a former member of the Rutland board of aldermen.

WIDOW BEATEN TO DEATH.

An Aged Widow Was Outraged and Murdered in Her Home.

Gloversville, N. Y., Aug. 12.—One of the most brutal murders in the history of Fulton county was disclosed yesterday afternoon by the finding of the body of Veronika Lechner, a widow, aged 82 years, who had been outraged and beaten to death by her assailant. The woman lived alone just outside the city limits and James Tripp, a well known character who was seen about the vicinity of the crime yesterday, was arrested last night and is being held by the police as a suspect.

Following close upon the arrest of Alfred Matthews, a colored resident of Johnstown, charged with assault, committed on a white woman of that city, the crime has caused considerable of a sensation.

ANNUAL CAMPMEETING

Of the East Montpelier Association Begins Friday Evening.

The annual campmeeting of the East Montpelier Evangelical Campmeeting association will be held on the camp ground at East Montpelier, beginning Friday evening, August 16th, at 7:30. The meetings will continue daily at 10:30 a. m., 2:30 and 7:30 p. m., with morning prayer-meeting at 9 o'clock, through Sunday, August 25th. Other arrangements of services will be made as occasion requires.

The annual business meeting will be held Friday, August 23d, at 1:30 p. m. The Rev. J. A. Ward of Pawtucket, R. I., president of the association, will be in charge, assisted by Rev. F. L. Stevens, T. E. Beebe, J. C. Briggs, D. W. Stafford, George A. Moore and A. W. Morrell. Other preachers and workers are expected.

Good board and lodging can be obtained at the grounds at very reasonable rates. Ground furnished free on which to pitch tents, and horses will be cared for. The Montpelier & Wells River railroad has granted reduced rates. The grounds are situated on the bank of the Winooski river and but ten minutes walk from the depot. Teams will be furnished to carry passengers and baggage to and from the station.

An invitation is extended to all to attend this series of meetings.

The Vaughan Store

Why Not Start Now AND PAY CASH FOR YOUR GOODS?

We Want to Increase Our Cash Sales and Will Help You Increase Your Savings Bank Account.

To do this we are going to make the most liberal DISCOUNT FEATURE ever offered in Barre.

Our Plan is This:

We have just installed a new National Cash Register System, built specially to take care of our business and to prevent mistakes and carelessness.

Beginning August 12th, 1907, and continuing till September 12th, 1907, we will give you a cash register receipt for each cash purchase in our store, and for one day in the month we will return to the holders of these cash register receipts bearing that date the amount of their cash purchase for that day. The lucky day will be announced September 15th and checks will be redeemed at our store any time between September 16th and 30th, 1907.

This means that you can come into our store and trade with us to the amount of $1.00, $10.00 or $20.00, and if it is the day that we return our receipts the amount of your purchase in cash will be returned to you. This does not apply to wholesale customers.

And remember that we have always had the name of selling our goods as low, or a little lower, than anybody in town. Our prices will remain the same and goods will be the same high-grade quality as ever.

Trade With Us and Save Money.

Smith & Cumings,

Telephone 438-11 305 North Main St., Barre, Vt.
